

CONTENTS

Theme of the issue:

Citizen activities as determinants of sustainable urban development (ethnological perspective)

EDITORIAL

- LUTHER, Daniel: Editorial • 324

ARTICLES

- BITUŠÍKOVÁ, Alexandra: Urban Activism in Central and Eastern Europe: A Theoretical Framework • 326
BLAHOVÁ, Natália: Engaged Anthropology and Corporate Volunteering • 339

RESEARCH REPORT

- LUTHER, Daniel: Active Citizens and the Historical Identity of a City: The Case of Bratislava – Podhradie • 355

ESSAY

- SALNER, Peter: Jewish Community Museum as a Result of Citizen Activities • 366

NEWS

- BOTÍKOVÁ, Marta, VOLANSKÁ, Ľubica: In memoriam Prof. Markus Cerman (* 27. July 1967, † 3. October 2015) • 380

- LUTHEROVÁ G., Soňa: What Should Engaged Science Be Like? The Conference Civil Activities and Engaged Research (3–4 November 2015, Bratislava) • 382

- ŠUSTEROVÁ, Ivana: The Academy of Roma Studies Accompanied by Conversations in Roma Language (11–13 November 2015, Bratislava) • 385

- POTANČOK, Vladimír: The first East European WOMEX was succesful also for Slovaks (21 –25 October 2015, Budapest, Hungary) • 389

- POTANČOK, Vladimír: Awards for Researchers of the Institute of Ethnology SAS in 2015 • 393

BOOK REVIEWS

- Lubo Stacho: Obchodná 1984–2014. Obchodná Street in Bratislava: ever changing, yet still the same (LUTHEROVÁ G., Soňa) • 394

- Peter Salner: Požehnaný spravodlivý sudca (Súčasný formy židovského pohrebu) [Blessed Fair Judge: The Current Forms of Jewish Funeral] (KILIÁNOVÁ, Gabriela) • 396